Lawyers' Wives Chapter

New Organization To Adopt By-Laws

The newly-formed Harbor-Peninsula Lawyers' Wives will meet Friday, Oct. 28, at the home of Mrs. Joe Raycraft, Rolling Hills, at 7:30 p.m. with a "coffee hour" and 9 p.m. meeting. The agenda includes adoption of By-Laws. All lawyers' and judges' wives in the area are urged to attend. This will be the last meeting at which charter memberships to the group will be given.

Officers for the year, elected at the last meeting of the group are Mmes. Allan Lind, president; George Stephenson, first vice president, legal aid chairman, M. D. Miguez, second vice president, program chairman, Tom Horn, recording secretary, treasurer, Arthur Corrales, corresponding secretary, public relations chairman; and Clifton Hix, historian and parliamentarian. Serving on the Legal Aid Committee are Mmes. Harry Root and Jonn Rogers.

On the Board of Directors appointed by the President are Mmes. John Holland, Charles Kert, Einar Feterson and Joe Raycraft.

First president of the group, Mrs. Lind has a history of leadership in the community. A mother of four, she is the chairman of the North Branch of the Harbor YWCA, chairman of the Area Finance Committee for the "Y" and Canteen Chairman of the USO in the Harbor area. An education major, graduating from San Francisco State, she also teaches "Art for Moms" at the Harbor YWCA.

Through her work for the "Y", Mrs. Lind's concern over the legal problems of the young wives in the poverty section of San Pedro led her to organize the Lawyers' Wives to support the new Legal Aid Office now open in Wilmington.

Lynn Rosen in Mademoiselle

Lynn Rosen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Henderson of 905 Sepulveda, Torrance, is featured in the October issue of Mademoiselle magazine. Considered one of the leaders of the young women in the beauty industry, Rebecca Warfield has included Lynn in her article, "The Strange Rapture Worth Billions."

An English Literature major and graduate from Ohio University, Lynn came to Jacqueline Cochran - Nina Ricci (after 4 years in promotion publicity at McGraw-Hill) for writing experience in a different area. Assistant to the Director of Creative Services, she writes package leaflets, publicity stories, radio-TV spot ads: "It's a challenge trying to create a new approach."

If there is an untapped, ever-growing industry with frontiers to blaze for vivacious young women, it is the beauty industry. Lynn is the image all young girls interested in beauty, should pursue. An industry composed of fascinating jobs, the position of Assistant to the Director of Creative Services, is only one of the myriad jobs available to ingenious young girls seeking positions a little out of the ordinary.

Pi Lambda Theta Schedules

Founders Day Celebration

Southern California Council of Phi Lambda Theta will honor the founders of this national and professional association for women in education at a meeting on Saturday, Nov. 5, at noon, at Ports o' Call Restaurant in San Pedro. Mrs. Mercedes La Rue, president of the Council and immediate past president of the Long Beach Alumnae Chapter, will preside at this biennial meeting.

Dr. Charlotte Dickinson Elmott, Dean of Pitzer College at Claremont, and a past national vice-president of Pi Lambda Theta, will speak on "New Concepts in Women's Education."

The biennial Leadership Recognition award will be made by Misses Blythe Monroe and Beulah Bartlett, who were the recipients two years ago because of their work as members of the Peace Corps when they helped organize schools in Ethiopia. This highly-prized award was given to Dr. El-mott by the Council in 1960. A musical program will be presented by Patsy Lopez and Alan Glasser, known as "Patsy and Alan" of UCLA. They will present folk songs and numbers of their own composition.

Southern California Council of Pi Lambda Theta is composed of 13 chapters, whose active members total over 1,800. The South Bay is represented by Alpha Chi Chapter of California State College at Long Beach, Mrs. Ella May Pattison of Hollywood Riviera, president.

Other South Bayans include: Mrs. Mavis Gnadt, Mrs. Virginia Sherwood, Miss Amy Sasaki, Mrs. Kathryn Beahan, Torrance; Mmes. Ann Cranmore, Hermosa Beach; Mrs. Georgia Carroll, Miss Teresa Dragone, Mrs. Elizabeth Stoebe, Manhattan Beach; Mmes. Dorothy Hood, Margaret Haggarty, Margaret Keitel, Gardena; and Mrs. Gertrude Wadman, Hawthorne.

CAFE A LA FRANCAIS

Scouting Disneyland for Parisian effects prior to setting the scene for their annual Montmartre Bazaar on Saturday, Nov. 12, Morningside Hospital Auxiliary members take time out for mid-morning coffee at French cafe in New Orleans Quarter. Jane McCloskey (center) renders service a la Paris to Mmes. Allen E. Brown (seated left) 755 W. 104th P., and Raymond Ferkel, 3733 Towers Ave., Torrance. The bazaar, to be presented on the hospital grounds, 8711 S. Harvard Blvd., will benefit expansion of facilities and services for patients and visitors.

NON-CONFORMISTS—THERE'S NO HALLOWEEN

All in fun, Victor Woman's Club members have invited their husbands to join them for an evening of non-conformity, a Beatnik party Saturday evening at the James Bruno home, 20615 Victor Ave. There will be Beatnik decorations, entertainment and food, Beatniks, in the party mood, ignoring Halloween, are from left, Mrs. Ben Molina, a Beatnik artist, handing a "suspicious looking" cigarette to another "Beatnik" Mrs. Wallace Pollock, guitarist, as Mrs. Richard Champion takes a "fun" pill. Others assisting with the party are Mmes. Fred Fenger, William Drale, Morrie Notrica and Joan Reinhold. (Press-Herald Photo)

What Do You Know?

Election Quiz Will Spark Hadassah Meet

A double-feature program consisting of speakers and a quiz game, dealing with the coming General Election, will be presented at the next meeting of the South Bay Chapter of Hadassah at 12:30, Tuesday, Nov. 1, at 3030 Merrill Drive, Torrance.

Members will participate in the quiz game, "Well, What Do You Know?" which will deal with information about state and local government, candidates, and issues. Prizes will be given to those having the highest scores.

The game will be preceded by a presentation of the issues confronting the citizen in the Nov. 8 election by Mmes. W. E. Bird-sail and Robert Plummer of the League of Women Voters.

Mmes. Dorothy Rosenberg and Harry Hyman are hostesses for the meeting.
